

CHILDREN
School

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3

TYPE: News 3 @ 4

DATE OF BROADCAST: June 18, 2008

DESCRIPTION: Students at Touro University in Henderson have become inventors, and their inventions could benefit people with disabilities. The project was created as part of an assignment for grad students who are studying to become occupational therapists. The inventions are to help people with limited mobility.
